

On Eagles Wings

An Eagle flew into my dreams last night...
On mighty wings we two took flight.

Soaring free up in the sky, we touched the clouds...
This friend and I.

Higher and Higher we did soar...
Freedom and peace was mine once more.

He showed me visions of what could be...
The choice he said, was up to me.

We flew once more around the sun...
A bright new journey now begun.

An eagle flew into my dreams last night...
On his wings I saw Spirits Light.
